RAILROAD DISCRIMINATION.

Our business men must not forget that at the Board of Trade rooms, Wood street, there will be held this afternoon, at three o'clock, an adjourned and final meeting of the General Judiciary Committee of the Senate, to take further testimony relative to alleged railroad discrimination. Last winter the atmosphere was full of general complaints against roads charged with discriminating in freight matters so as to favor business communities elsewhere to the detriment of local interests. The opportunity is now afforded to particularize instances where this injurious policy has been adopted, and we earnestly insist on merchants and manufacturers who know anything bearing on the subject to attend the meeting and give testimony before the Committee.

A FRIGHTFUL murder was committed in Piatte county, Missouri, on the 3d. Mr. Middleton went to the house of his neighbor, Mr. Kay. Kay's wife was in bed, very sick. Middleton playfully ask her for a kiss. She grew angry, and he protested that it was a joke. She refused to be pacified, and he remained until her husband came in, when she told him. Mr. Middleton explained and disclaimed any thought of insult or wrong. Kay rejected his apology and ordered him out. Mrs. Middleton went and talked with the angry couple. Her husband was a man of forty-five, an exemplary husband and Christian, fond of a joke, and had often bantered Mrs. K. for a kiss, as he had done many another neighbor woman. The virtuous Mrs. K. was determined to feel insulted, and next morning her fiendish husband, instigated by his no less fiendish wife, went out, sought Mr. Middleton, commanded him to kneel, as he was going to shoot him, and in spite of his protestations, did shoot him, firing twice, and then going to his bereaved family and telling them where he lay. Mr. Middleton died soon after he was found, and his murderer escaped.

THE refusal of the bankers in New York to redeem some eighty thousand dollars of the counterfeit Seven Thirty bonds, on which they became endorsers, will result in an important law suit. The decision of the United States Treasurer in the matter appears eminently just and proper, although it entails a hardship on the victimized brokers and bankers. The statute laws of the different States, we believe, permit the tracing back of counterfeit money till the person is found who cannot account for its possession, and he is made responsible for its redemption. Congress made a law protecting the national currency, in which it is set forth that the possession of any number of counterfeit notes, without being able to account for them, will be considered prima facie evidence of the guilt of the party holding them. In endorsing the bonds the bankers made themselves liable for face value and cannot possibly get out of the obligation assumed.

THE Detroit Advertiser says "a first rate kitchen girl can lay up as much money as the great majority of female teachers." To which we would add, and have situations looking for her instead of looking for situations. Why household work should be so avoided by intelligent women who must earn a living is one of the mysteries. Few ladies feel degraded by working in their own kitchens, and why should it degrade one to work in that of another? Many prominent men began life as farm laborers. Why should not the kitchen open its doors to admit women to honorable independence?

THE Russians have a Festival just before the breaking up of the ice on the Neva. The Emperor and everybody go on the ice, some one cuts a hole in it, and an officer hands the Emperor a glass of water, which he must drink every drop, and hand the glass back to the officer full of gold coin. Once upon a time the officer handed His Majesty a quart glass, and after that the size of the glass was prescribed by law.

NEW YORK bids for another sensation. A jury has acquitted a murderer because the victim had been too intimate with prisoner's wife. Jurors returning such verdicts license murder.

THE rebels of Harper's Ferry are jubilant, and are driving off the Yankees and breaking up the negro schools.

THE RAVAGES OF WAR.—It is announced that since the Act of Congress of July 16, 1862, authorizing artificial limbs to be furnished to maimed soldiers, there have been issued 3,981 legs, 2,2[illegible]0 arms, 9 feet, 55 hands, and 125 surgical apparatus. The Surgeon General estimates that 1,000 limbs remain still to be supplied. Hereafter a money value is to be given in lieu of an order on some manufacturer. The total number of wounds recorded was 133,952, and of "operations," 28,438. The Surgeons killed in battle during the war were 29; by accident, 12; died of wounds, 10; died in rebel prisons, 4; of yellow fever, 7; cholera, 3; of other diseases, 271—making a total of 336. Medical officers wounded in battle, 35; 210,027 soldiers are recorded as discharged on certificates of disability.

DAVID HERTZLER, an old, respectable and wealthy citizen of Springfield, O., President of the Clarke County Bank, was shot through the heart in his own house, after being previously shot in the head and leg. It is stated that no money was secured by the murderers; but later private advices indicate that they carried off a hundred thousand dollars in gold and bonds.

Two arrests have been made already; five thousand dollars reward is offered for the capture of the murderers; some facts are known which have put the police on their track; and we hope soon to chronicle the arrest and condign punishment of all the perpetrators of this terrible crime.—Cin. Gazette.

—Ex-rebel Governor Zeb. Vance, of North Carolina, was the first lawyer of note who addressed a colored jury in the Second Military District, impannelled under General Canby's order. He addressed them as "gentlemen of the jury," and won his case. Thus far this class of jurors have given satisfaction to the North Carolina bar generally.

MIDNIGHT.

WASHINGTON CITY.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, October 14, 1867.

THADDEUS STEVENS,

In letters written to friends in Washington, declares his intention to urge upon Congress, as soon as it meets in November, two great measures, essential to the safety of the country. The first is a general impeachment law, defining offences upon which an officer may be impeached, and expressly declaring that no officer shall continue to exercise the power of his office during his trial. The second law which Mr. Stevens intends to urge will provide that under the authority of the Constitution, and upon the principles of the Declaration of Independence, no State shall have power to prohibit citizens of the United States, whatever their race, color, or religion, from voting for President or Congressmen; this law will establish impartial suffrage throughout the Union. Leading Republicans affirm that Mr. Stevens will be sustained by Congress.

SECRETARY OF WAR QUESTION.

General Grant, it is stated, strongly urges the appointment of Maj. Gen. Rawlings, his chief of staff, as Secretary of War. At a recent meeting of the Cabinet the question of appointing a permanent War Secretary was discussed, and the President has since had the matter under serious consideration.

WHAT CONGRESS WILL DO.

The Tribune's special says: The Republicans here expect that the Cabinet will be harmonized in support of the threatened Presidential coup d'etat, and they seriously think that the aspect of affairs is fraught with great danger. They fear that Congress may convene in a bold and defiant spirit, and adhere to the declared policy of the extreme men, viz: Impeachment and suspension of the President during the trial, and since the elections more than ever they believe Mr. Johnson will resist and attempt with force, if necessary, to maintain his Constitutional right to hold the office until judgment after the trial. Others argue that the effect of the elections has been to settle these grave questions, and that impeachment will find fewer advocates at the next session than were counted in the last.

GEN. GRANT AND THE ELECTIONS.

The Star here denies officially the statement that Gen. Grant has expressed himself as satisfied with the results of the late elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio. Gen. Grant also pronounces false and malicious the report going the rounds of the newspapers purporting to give a synopsis of his evidence before the Judiciary Committee on Impeachment.

THE SPURIOUS SEVEN-THIRTIES.

The additional points of difference in the spurious seven-thirties show that in the counterfeit notes the lines forming the right shoulder of the female in the central vignette do not come up to the sword, but leave a white space. In the genuine note the lines are not only more numerous, but come clearly and distinctly up to the sword. So far as discovered the Treasury Department has had presented to it only seventy thousand dollars worth of the spurious notes.

SUB-JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

The Sub-Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives met to day, at 12 o'clock, in the committee room at the Capitol. The following members were present: Hon. Francis Thomas, Chairman, with Messrs. Boutwell, Lawrence, Churchill and Marshall. This Committee is charged with the duty of enquiring if the States of Delaware and Maryland have a Republican form of government and not repugnant to the Constitution of the United States. No testimony has been taken, although witnesses are in waiting.

SOUTHERN RAILROADS.

A number of prominent Southern railroad men are here, including Generals Beauregard and Mahone, who called at the War Department to-day to consult General Grant with reference to obtaining an extension of time for completing the payment due the Government for rolling stock purchased at the close of the war. Gen. Beauregard this afternoon had an interview with Secretary McCulloch.

INDIAN AFFAIRS—HOPEFUL NEWS.

The Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs has received the following dispatch from Thomas Murphy, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, dated Medicine Lodge Creek, sixty miles south of Fort Laramie, October 2d: "I have now been twelve days here among the Indians and find them all anxious for peace. Have had considerable trouble in getting communication with the Cheyennes, but have succeeded. They promise that no more war parties shall go out, and agree to meet the Commissioners. I can now safely say that the Arraphoes, Cheyennes, Apaches, Kiowas and Camanches will be fully represented at the grand council. There are large numbers of these Indians here now and others are coming in as fast as they can. Say to Commissioner Taylor, if the Commissioners can get here sooner than full moon, it would be better."

THREE PER CENTS. CANNOT BE USED AS LEGAL TENDER.

The Comptroller of Currency, in reply to numerous letters from country banks, inquiring if the three per cent. certificates can be used in place of Legal Tender as a reserve of banks, notifies them that such use is illegal.

MORE CONSCIENCE MONEY.

A letter received some time ago at the Treasury Department, from Urbana, Ohio, enclosing United States notes and bonds to the amount of $19,854, sent without explanation, has, after being held for information from the sender, been transferred to the Treasury of the United States, and included in the Conscience Fund.

Alleged Murderers Arrested—Negro Convicted of Attempted Rape—Legislative Proceedings—Grant's Nomination for the Presidency Favored, &c., &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NASHVILLE, October 14.—William and Henry Crockett, of Williamson County, have been brought here, charged with the murder of Joseph Drake, colored, and shooting his wife. The negroes were employed by the Crocketts in making a crop. The prisoners gave bail in the sum of $5,000 for their appearance to-morrow. They are confident of acquittal.

Joe Wharton, colored, was convicted to-day, in the Criminal Court, of an attempt to commit a rape on a white woman some years ago, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for ten years.

Resolutions were offered in the Legislature to-day, favoring the nomination of Grant for President and a reduction of the tax on cotton. A bill was introduced assuming the claims of loyal citizens for property taken or destroyed during the war.

Governor Brownlow submitted a report of Mr. M'Elwel, sent to Memphis to investigate the condition of the Insurance National Bank, that borrowed school funds. The report was unsatisfactory, indicating small chances to recover the balance due, amounting to over four hundred thousand dollars.

Attempted Murder in a Church—A Horrible Affair—The Criminal Arrested.

Last Sunday afternoon the peace and quiet of Canton, Ohio, were broken by one of the most horrible and brutal attempts at murder ever recorded in the annals of that county. Ferdinand Hoffman, a noted burglar and counterfeiter, having returned home within the last few days, after serving out his term of imprisonment in the Penitentiary for counterfeiting, found that his wife had procured a bill of divorce. This so enraged him that he at once determined on her destruction, and awaited the opportunity to carry out his designs. Knowing that she attended the German Reformed Church, he posted himself in wait for her appearance. As soon as Mrs. Hoffman saw him, she seemed to be aware of his evil intentions and tried to elude him by running into the church and secreting herself in the belfry. This she accomplished, but Hoffman found her and immediately began his hellish work. He succeeded in inflicting twelve wounds, some of which were ghastly. The instrument he used was a common sized Bowie knife, the blade about five inches in length. Had he not, in the beginning of the assault, broken off the point of the knife, most of the wounds would have proved fatal on the spot. As the congregation was not in session, it being half an hour before the time, the sexton was the only one present when the deed was committed. Hearing her screams he was attracted to the spot. The murderer brandished his knife, and was allowed to escape. However, he only ran some three squares, when he was captured, and it was only through the intercession of some of our citizens that he was taken to the jail alive. Mrs. Hoffman, at the present time, is lying very low, and it is hardly probable she will survive her injuries.

Another Raid on Whisky Stills.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—The Marshal, with a company of marines, started at noon to-day for another raid among the illicit stills at Port Richmond. The distillers, however, had been warned in some way, and a large number of stills had been removed and secreted. A quantity of mash, in hogsheads, was seized and destroyed. There were large crowds of women and children in the nighborhood, but no disturbance.

The Marshal succeeded in capturing sixteen stills, most of which had been secreted by the owners.

THE FENIAN MUSQUITO.—The London Spectator, speaking of what it calls "the Fenian Musquito," facetiously remarks: "We should not feel the smallest surprise in hearing of a Fenian outrage at Vancouver's Island or Hong Kong. That would be just as wise and just as useful to the Fenian cause as attacks on Canada, on Chester Castle, or on Manchester police. It is just like musquito bites. The bite is of no great importance, and so long as you ensconce yourself in a musquito curtain you are safe. But the business of life cannot be done ensconced in a musquito curtain."

Large Republican Meeting—Convention Candidates Nominated—Movements by Other Parties—Gen. Schofield Returned—No Change in the Reconstruction Programme.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RICHMOND, Oct. 14.—The Republican City Convention met at the Capitol Square at noon to-day. Candidates to the Constitutional Convention were agreed upon Saturday night. J. W. Hunnicutt, Judge Underwood, and James Morrissey, white, and Lewis Lindsley and James Cox, colored, were unanimously nominated.

The meeting was one of the largest ever held on the Square, and the greater portion of the colored population were present. Fewer white people than usual attended. It is said the greater portion of the white and moderate colored men intend making other nominations.

The ex-officers and soldiers' party did not take part, but will nominate a ticket of their own after the other nominations.

The candidates, with the exception of Underwood, who is absent from the city, were called out, and made speeches of a very proscriptive character.

General Schofield returned here yesterday. There will be no change in the Reconstruction programme in this State.

A card will be published in the morning by the moderate Republicans, cautioning parties against pledging themselves to the ticket nominated to-day, as intelligent, responsible candidates will be announced at once.

The Conservatives intend holding a meeting to organize and nominate a ticket for the city, and also one for the county, during the week.

THE BANKRUPT LAW.

The Right of the United States Court to Interfere With Prior Judgments in State Courts—Injunctions Against the Sheriffs of Armstrong and Jefferson Counties Dissolved—Opinions by Judge McCandless.

In the United States Court, Monday forenoon, Judge McCandless delivered the following opinions in cases in bankruptcy, arising before him a short time since. The decisions are of more than ordinary importance, settling, as they do, a question about which there has been a diversity of opinion.

In the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Pennsylvania, sitting as a Court of Bankruptcy: In the matter of creditors petition to declare Hugh Campbell a bankrupt.

Judge McCandless delivered the following opinion:

I feel the grave responsibility which attaches to the decision about to be announced. In construing a new and untried Statute, and establishing the practice to be observed in its proper administration, there must necessarily be much diversity of opinion among both lawyers and judges. The interests involved are frequently so large, and the principles so important, that inextricable confusion must result from an unsound interpretation of the legislation of Congress. This Bankrupt Act is, in my judgment, highly beneficial to both the debtor and the creditor. It was designed to relieve the one from oppressive liabilities which render him unfit to contribute to the productive wealth of the country, and it affords to the other an assurance that all the property of the debtor, except what, from motives of humanity, he is permitted to retain, shall be honestly devoted to the payment of his debts. With a fraudulent debtor it is wisely and justly stringent, compelling a full discovery and surrender of his assets for the benefit of his creditors, under peril of imprisonment for contempt, which, in the Courts of the United States, is a penalty not to be disregarded.

The present is a case upon creditors petition to declare Hugh Campbell a bankrupt. Numerous acts of bankruptcy have been assigned, all of which are denied, and a trial by jury awarded. Many judgments of large amount, the validity of which are not questioned, have been entered in the Court of Common Pleas of Armstrong county, and they are all prior in date to the period when the bankrupt law went into operation. Upon final process, a sale of real estate by the Sheriff has been made, and $29,290 realized and brought into Court for distribution. Under these circumstances our extraordinary power of injunction was invoked to restrain, not only the plaintiffs in these judgments, but the Courts of the State and their executive officers, from further proceeding, with the design to bring all the property of the bankrupt into this Court, as a Court of Bankruptcy, for division among all his creditors. The injunction against the Sheriff and the parties was granted, with leave instanter for a motion to dissolve, that we might ascertain whether, under the Bankrupt law, we have the right to interfere with the Courts of the State in the legitimate exercise of their functions. After much reflection I am satisfied we have not, nor with the actors, or parties, litigating before them.

The first section of the Act is wide in its scope, and would seem to bring all parties, estates and interests connected with the Bankrupt into a common forum or center. And to do so, it is contended that Congress, by implication, conferred upon the District Courts of the United States the authority to suspend all and every proceeding elsewhere, and to command obedience to their mandates, exclusive of all other jurisdictions. This, by virtue of the 5th clause of the 8th section of the 1st Article of the Constitution of the United States, granting the power "to establish uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States," Congress had the right to do, but they have not done so.

Staring them in the face was the Act of the 2d of March, 1793, Section 5th, expressly declaring "nor shall a writ of injunction be granted to stay proceedings in any Court of a State." There is nothing in the Bankrupt law, in terms repealing this statute, and the authority, conferred by the 40th section, to issue an injunction against the bankrupt, and all other persons, excludes the presumption that it is to be exercised without limitation. "Other persons," here expressed, has reference to parties interfering with the property of an individual not yet adjudicated, an involuntary bankrupt, and which is to be preserved inviolate until his bankruptcy has been legally ascertained. It does not refer to the Courts of a State, or to their executive officers. It was not designed to arrest the machinery of another and independent forum, which is exercising its best efforts to marshal the assets of the debtor, and, after discharging the legitimate liens to which they are subject, reserving the residue as a fund for the assignee in Bankruptcy.

Liens, by this law, as they should be, are held sacred. To say that the vigilant creditor, who by his diligence has secured his debt, and has a valid lien upon the property of the bankrupt, shall come in with all the other creditors, pro rata, would be a perversion of the purposes of Congress in the passage of the act. No right acquired by the creditor is affected or impaired. The 14th section expressly protects him. The assignee has authority, under the direction of this Court, to discharge any lien upon any property, real or personal, and is authorized to sell the same, subject to such lien or other incumbrances. By the 15th section he is permitted to sell all unincumbered estates, real and personal, on such terms as he thinks most for the interest of the creditors. Where there is a lien on real or personal property, the 20th section admits the holder of the lien, as a creditor in bankruptcy, for the balance of the debt, after deducting the value of the property, to be ascertained by agreement or sale, or the creditor may release or convey his claim to the assignee, and be permitted to prove his whole debt in bankruptcy.

These several sections are distinct recognitions by Congress of the sanctity of liens, obtained before the inception of proceedings in bankruptcy, and they control, and are a limitation of the sweeping provisions of the first section. It is among the elementary principles with regard to the construction of Statutes, that every section, provision and clause of a Statute shall be expounded by a reference to every other. The most general and absolute terms of one section may be qualified and limited by conditions and exceptions contained in another, so that all may stand together.

All liens then remain intact. The Bankrupt's final certificate operates to discharge his person and future acquisitions, while, at the same time, the mortgagee, or other lien creditor, shall be permitted to have their satisfaction out of the property mortgaged or subject to lien. A legal right without a remedy would be an anomaly in the law—7 Howard, 623.

It is true that the first section of the Act declares that the jurisdiction conferred on the District Court of the United States shall extend "to all cases and controversies, arising between the bankrupt and any creditor or creditors, who shall claim any debt or demand under the bankruptcy." But as the Supreme Court of the United States say, in that very able opinion delivered by my Brother, Mr. Justice Grier, in the case of Peck vs. Jennes, before quoted in 7 Howard, the Court of Common Pleas of Armstrong county have full and complete jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter, and its jurisdiction had attached long before any act of bankruptcy was committed. It is an independent tribunal, not deriving its authority from the same sovereign, and as regards the District Court, a foreign forum, in every way its equal, the District Court has no supervisory power over it.

When the jurisdiction of a Court, and the right of a plaintiff to prosecute his suit in it, have once attached, that right cannot be arrested or taken away by proceedings in another Court. These rules have their foundation not merely in comity, but in necessity. For if one may enjoin, the other may retort by injunction, and thus the parties be without remedy; being liable to a process for contempt in one, if they dare to proceed in the other. Neither can one take property from the custody of the other by replevin or other process, for this would produce a conflict of jurisdiction, extremely embarrassing in the administration of justice. The fact, therefore, that an injunction issues only to the parties before the Court, and not to the Court itself, is no evasion of the difficulties that are the necessary result of an attempt to exercise that power over a party who is a litigant in another and independent forum.

It follows, therefore, that this Court has no supervisory power over the Court of Common Pleas of Armstrong county, by injunction or otherwise, unless it is conferred by the Bankrupt law. But we cannot discover any provision in that Act which limits the jurisdiction of the State Courts, or confers any power on the Bankrupt Court to supercede their jurisdiction, or wrest property from the custody of their officers. On the contrary, it provides, in the 14th section, that the assignee "may prosecute and defend all suits at law, or in equity, pending at the time of the adjudication of the bankruptcy, in which such bankrupt is a party, in his own name, in the same manner and with the like effect, as they might have been prosecuted or defended by such bankrupt." In other words, as to the estate and property of the bankrupt, the assignee is subrogated to all his rights and responsibilities. The Act sends the assignee to the State court, and admits its power over him. It confers no authority on this Court to restrain proceedings therein, by injunction, or other process, much less to take property out of its custody or possession with a strong hand.

Finding no such grant of power, either in direct terms or by necessary implication from any of the provisions of the Bankrupt law, we are not at liberty to interpolate it on any supposed grounds of policy or expediency. We shall therefore be compelled to dissolve this, and all other injunctions in similar cases.

I have not submitted this opinion to my Brother Grier, but it may be a source of gratification to the profession to learn that, sitting with him, recently, at Circuit, in Philadelphia, we conferred upon this case, and I am pleased to say that we concurred in the legal principles upon which it should be decided.

Injunction dissolved.

This case was argued by Mr. Patterson for, and by Mr. Painter, Mr. Golden, and Gen. Foster, against the injunction.

QUESTION OF FRAUD CONSIDERED.

In the District Court of the United States, for the Western District of Pennsylvania, sitting as a Court of Bankruptcy: In the matter of William Burns, a Petitioner for adjudication in Bankruptcy, of the firm of S. & W. Burns.

Judge McCandless delivered the following opinion:

This case was argued at the same time with that of Hugh Campbell, and the principal point presented has been there decided.

It differs in this—Burns is a voluntary bankrupt. His petition was filed on the 31st of July, 1867, and he was duly adjudged a Bankrupt. The First National Bank of Clarion, a creditor of the firm of which the bankrupt was a partner, on the 18th of July, 1867, obtained judgment upon warrant of attorney, dated 9th of July of the same year, for the sum of $10,300. A Fi-Fa. was issued, and a levy made by the Sheriff of Jefferson county, on merchandise and lumber, at what date, from the imperfection of the paper book, this Court is unable to say, but prior in date to the commencement of the proceedings in bankruptcy.

It was alleged at the argument that the note, on which this judgment is predicated, was given under promise not to sue out a writ of execution, but to be held as a security, and to afford the firm, of which the bankrupt was a partner, an opportunity to make some arrangement with their creditors. That in violation of this agreement, and in fraud of the thirty-fifth section of the Bankrupt law, the judgment was entered, execution issued, and levy made. Before the date fixed by the Sheriff for his sale, we were asked, by petition, to enjoin the Clarion Bank and the Sheriff from proceeding further with their writ, and directing them to deliver their property, upon which the levy was made, to the assignee in bankruptcy. This we did, at the same time admonishing Counsel of the doubts entertained as to the power of this Court, and suggesting a motion to dissolve, which was granted. Upon this point they have been fully heard, and the question has been decided to-day in Campbell's case.

It was urged, with great force and ability, by the Counsel for the bankrupt, that we were bound to interfere, by injunction, because this was not a valid judgment. But how do we know that? It is entered in a Court of competent jurisdiction, whose authority it is our duty to respect. If it is fraudulent, or void under the Bankrupt law, it is the province of the assignee in bankruptcy, who stands in the attitude of a defendant, to see, in that forum, that no injustice is done to the general creditors.

By the first section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, it is declared that "full faith and credit shall be given in each State to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other State," and this is equally binding on the Courts of the United States.

We must, therefore, refer the assignee in bankruptcy, as the representative of the defendant, and of all the creditors, to the Court of Common Pleas of Jefferson county.

Injunction dissolved.

This case was argued by Mr. Purviance for the Clarion Bank, and by Mr. Shiras for the bankrupt and general creditors.

Ho! For Salt River!

There is supposed to be a popular saline region somewhere this side the Mountains of the Moon, whither wend their way disappointed politicians after the close of important elections. Some years ago the Salt River district was reported by those who had been there as a right smart and pleasant abode, but lately it has received anything but a favorable reputation, for the unterrified Democratic party have long held their residence in the neighborhood, and under their rule ruin has followed. The churches were destroyed, the school houses burned, the railways abandoned for corduroy roads, slavery established, and a near approach to primitive ages was made, for retrogression was the mischievous policy of the party in occupancy. General Apathy, however, found them in due time and brought them back to the haunts of civilization. The noisy turmoil and cheers for Sharswood heard on our streets, the establishment of cockpits in newspaper offices, and other uncivilized conduct, mark the poor men who have just got down from the saline regions.

But there is a new day dawning for Salt River. Its navigation is to be improved, the lands on its banks are to be cultivated. The region left in ruin by Democrats is to be inhabited for a short time by the progressive party, and what changes will be wrought! Churches and school houses will spring up, railroads will checker the land, and universal freedom will be re-established. We have our ticket, sent all the way from Phila delphia. It is issued by the Democratic State line and in stupidity is great. As the chief literature of the opposition is hand bills and minstrel "dodgers," the design for the pretentious card has been drawn from a moderately well supplied job-office, and does not lack for "nagur" heads, "Pomp on ice," and "Sambo in a clog dance." So the card passes us we presume it is all right; but we choose to accept another ticket, issued by the Allegheny County Committee of the Democracy, because it is smaller in size and the quantity of wit displayed. It bears a steamboat cut, and contains local hits not unworthy a sleek and well fed boot black's wit. Either ticket will do to reach the point to which we are temporarily assigned, but we are consoled in knowing that our crowd is great on reconstruction.

Allegheny Colored Public Schools.

We were present yesterday at the opening of the Colored Public Schools of Allegheny, in the new building just completed, on Webster street, opposite the Penitentiary. A number of the members of the Board of Control were present, of whom the President, J. B. Clark, and others, made brief addresses. Rev. Joseph Travelli, distinguished for his labors in behalf of the freedmen, Superintendent Douthett, Professor Neale, Mr. John P. Sampson, a colored newspaper editor from Cincinnati, and others addressed the meeting, which was largely attended by parents and children. The occasion was one of peculiar interest to the colored citizens and their white friends. Professor Neale, we learn, delivered the opening speech before we arrived. We understand it did equal credit to his head and heart. The speaking was alternated by vocal music, in which a quartette of colored singers displayed both taste and culture. Professor Slack also participated in a portion of the musical service with his accustomed ability.

With the exception of a little sparring in relation to what is unpleasant in the past history of the colored schools, the meeting was altogether a pleasant and profitable one. Credit is due to the Board and their constituency for having at last overcome all obstacles, and provided apartments so airy and spacious and furniture suited to them. We look for a more rapid and satisfactory progress of these schools and a higher appreciation of the energy and talents of the excellent Principal.

Alleys Blockaded.

We have been requested to call the attention of the city authorities to the fact that Diamond alley, between Smithfield and Grant streets, is continually blockaded with vehicles of various kinds, and that in Cherry alley, near where it crosses Diamond street, a cart has been standing for over a year. There is, or at least should be, an ordinance prohibiting this, and it ought to be enforced. These alleys are both much used, and obstructions, such as those named, are a great impediment to those who are necessitated to travel through them. They should be removed.

The Western Penitentiary.

Some weeks since an article appeared in one of the city papers, in which it was stated that a convict had made his escape from the Penitentiary by donning the clothes of, and representing himself to be, a fellow prisoner, whose term of imprisonment had expired. The manner in which this story was gotten up made it altogether plausible, calculated to decieve the public into the belief that it was true. We heard the story several days before its appearance in the city paper, but declined giving it publicity, because we had no confidence in the party from whom we received the information. We have since that time made an investigation of the matter, and are pleased to state the story is false. We consider it due to Dr. Campbell, the present Warden, to state that his management of the institution has been entirely satisfactory to the Board of Inspectors. A number of escapes have been reported recently for which there was no foundation whatever, although published by the city papers generally. These reports mostly originated from the same source, and were taken up by the reporters and published without making an effort to ascertain their truthfulness, not through any malice to Dr. Campbell, or from negligence, but because it was the general impression among them that the information could not be obtained—an impression which, although an erroneous one, was not without foundation, having been created by some of the attendants of the institution refusing to give information at various times. At the time two men escaped through the gates, and were recaptured, an account of which was published in the GAZETTE, we called, in company with another reporter, to ascertain the facts connected with the affair, but failed to obtain them, not through any disposition of Dr. Campbell to conceal the facts, but because he did not know that we were connected with the press.

General Conference of the Evangelical Association.

FOURTH DAY—MORNING SESSION.

General prayer held. General attendance of delegates. Exercises interesting and spiritual, and continued half an hour. Bishop Long in the chair. The records of Saturday read, corrected and approved. Some improvements in the business rules were made, calculated to facilitate the deliberations of Conference. Documents bearing on the erection and opening of Missionary Institutes, for the education of candidates for the ministry, were presented and referred to the Committee on Education.

The Episcopal message was read by Bishop Esher, junior Bishop of the church. The message represents the work as being in a prosperous condition. All the enterprises of the church are faithfully attended to. The work is expanding in the east and west, north and south, both in America and in Europe. The ministry is self-sacrificing and devoted to the work, and the laity, generally, is growing in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ. The message was referred to the respective committee.

Rev. Chas. Hammer, General Book Agent, presented his report. The printing and book establishment is located at Cleveland, Ohio. The financial condition of the establishment is prosperous. During the last quadrennial the business has increased about one hundred per cent. The establishment issues two weekly religious periodicals, two Sunday school papers, tract and Sunday school literature, theological, religious and miscellaneous books.

Closed with the usual exercises by John Stoll, of the Ohio delegation.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opened by Bishop Long. A document recommending the establishing of an institution of learning of a higher grade at a central point. The church has a number of institutions under its patronage. The want of an institution of high grade is sensibly felt, in which the youths of the church may realize a higher intellectual culture than can now be obtained in the institutions under the patronage of the church. Adjourned to give to committees time to work.

WE NOTICED at the Boiler Works of Messrs. Carroll & Snyder a large number of iron tanks, adapted for the transportation of oil on the Allegheny Valley Railroad. They are being built for the Company, which will have trucks suited to them, and expect in this way to transport an immense quantity of oil over their road safer and cheaper than is possible by any other known method. These tanks are made of Nos. 7, 8 and 9 sheet iron, are carefully put together, and before using are subjected to severe tests to determine their tightness. Each tank weighs from 2,200 to 2,400 lbs., and contains 42 barrels, or about 1,700 gallons. It is thought they will be a great improvement on the wooden tanks used on other roads. Colonel Phillips, President of the road, displays commendable enterprise in this matter, as well as in pressing forward the work on his line, which, in a few weeks more, will be opened through to Oil City.

Acquatic.

Henry Coltart, of Manchester, whose acceptance of John Mekeil's challenge to row a five mile race we announced several days since, has signed and forwarded articles of agreement to the New York Clipper for Mekiel's signature. The articles stipulate that the race shall take place at this city over the lower Monongahela course, on Saturday, November the 2d, for a purse of two thousand dollars.

The junior four oared crews of the Duquesne and Howard boat clubs will row a three mile race over the Allegheny course, on Saturday, the 19th inst., for a purse of fifty dollars.

Serious Accident.

Albert Pagle, of Allegheny, met with a serious accident yesterday. He was climbing over a pailing fence on the premises of George Beilestein, at the corner of East Lane and Canal street, when he accidentally fell from the fence into the cellar, the door of which was open, a distance of fifteen feet, breaking his hip bone, left jaw, and sustaining severe internal injuries. Doctors Zeigler and Holtzman were called and attended to his injuries, and they think, with proper care, he will recover.

DANGEROUS FALL.—Yesterday evening an old lady, about seventy years of age, whom we have noticed passing up and down Fifth street for some time past, while attempting to cross the excavation for the sewer, on a plank, at the corner of Fifth and Market streets, fell into the ditch, which is at that point between twelve and fifteen feet deep. She was removed by the workmen, and after sitting a short time on the sidewalk was, with the assistance of two men, able to walk home. Although the fall was a dangerous one the old lady escaped without serious injury.

VARIETIES THEATRE.—The managers of the Varieties Theatre are untiring in their efforts to furnish their patrons with fun. Every bill presents some new attraction, and they always play what those bills call for. Miss Sallie Swift, the lady athlete, and Miss Fanny Forrest, the "Song Bird" of America, are announced for to-night, in addition to a number of other attractions.

COMMITTEE MEETING.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that a meeting of the Union Executive Committee of Pittsburgh has been called at the office of A. M. Brown, Esq., No. 114 Fifth street, Thursday evening, the 17th inst., at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is desired. Gentlemen of the Committee will please take notice.

USEFUL PAMPHLET.—Corp. G. A. Lord, formerly a member of Company G, Capt. Geo. E. Lemon, 125th N. Y. V. Regt., has issued a Pamphlet which, in addition to a sketch of his military career, contains some important documents and do credit to his taste and patriotism. Mr. Lord will call on our citizens during the week to sell his work.

FALSE ALARM.—The fire department were thrown into a state of excitement last evening about six o'clock by an alarm of fire, which, it was thought, came from Birmingham. Several of the companies turned out, and some of them, we believe, crossed the river, but were unable to find from whence the alarm proceeded.

CONVALESCENT.—We are pleased to know that Alderman E. S. Morrow, who has been confined to his residence for some time with typhoid fever, has so far recovered as to be able to partially resume his duties as Deputy Clerk of the Quarter Sessions.

DEDICATED.—The new hall of Nicholson Lodge, I. O. O. F., at East Liberty, was dedicated last evening. P. G., S. Nicholson, of the Grand Lodge of the United States, was present and conducted the ceremonies.

Left Home.

About three weeks since James Kearnan, a boy twelve years of age, who resided with his parents on Second street, Eighth ward, left home on the pretense of going to work in a glass house. He did not return the Saturday evening following his departure, and his father went to the glass house to see what detained him, and upon inquiry found that he had not been there. He has been searching diligently for him since, but has been unable to get hold of him, although he frequently heard from him. It appears that he loafs about the streets during the day and sleeps wherever he can find shelter. His reason for leaving home was because his father wished to send him to school.

TAKEN TO ERIE.—Officer Furguson, of Erie, arrived in the city last night from Greensburg, en route for Erie, with George Blessing and Frank Graham, who were arrested at Greensburg last week on a charge of horse stealing, an account of which we published in a former issue. The prisoners were taken to the lock-up, where they were furnished lodgings for the night, and they will be taken to Erie to-day.

LITERARY EXHIBITION.—The J. S. P. Association, an organization composed of many of our most talented colored young men, will give a grand literary and musical entertainment to-night at Excelsior Hall, Allegheny. Professor Loudin's splendid quartette club will be in attendance to furnish its proverbially excellent vocalization.

THE "SHOVERS."—George W. Waters and John B. Wright, who were arrested for passing counterfeit money, at the Union Depot Sunday morning, were taken before United States Commissioner McCandless, yesterday, and were held for a further hearing.

THE FENIANS.—A meeting of the Fenians of this city was held in Boilers' Hall, corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets, last night. The attendance was large, and the meeting quiet and orderly.

ON DUTY.—Officer Thomas W. Noble, of the police force, who was stabbed by James Scanlon, of Lawrenceville, some two weeks since, has entirely recovered and is again on duty.

THE FIRE ALARM TELEGRAPH is working admirably at present, and will doubtless continue to do so, while under the present management.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

—A serious accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Northern Central Railroad, at Millersburgh, thirty miles north of Harrisburgh, at about 6:30 o'clock on Friday morning. The up and down express trains collided with a terrific shock, injuring the locomotives and scattering the baggage in every direction. A colored boy from Harrisburgh, who was stealing a passage on the tank of the engine attached to the train, was killed instantly. In the confusion incident, some thieves carried off a number of trunks, and parcels belonging to passengers. Though the shock was great, only a few passengers were seriously injured, most of them receiving contusions. The trains were delayed two hours, and then moved on.

—St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal Church at Phœnixville, Pa., was discovered to be on fire again between four and five o'clock yesterday morning. This time the flames were kindled in the church at the foot of the reading desk, and not in the Sunday school room as before. The incendiaries had been in the church all night; all the boxes containing the missionary money were broken open and robbed. The walls will have to be replastered and painted, having been discolored so much by the smoke. The reading desk and a portion of the platform was consumed.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1867.

THE World says the Reconstruction laws must now fail; that the Southern people will be encouraged by the late elections to await a further reaction, and by stubborn inaction they will defeat the Congressional plan, and adds:

> "The Republicans have, in a thousand and a thousand ways, so committed themselves to their present scheme of reconstruction, that they cannot retreat from it without a total rout; but they are exposed to still greater disasters if they try to maintain their ground."

What greater disaster than "a total rout" can a party be exposed to? The World is right in saying that a retreat from their plan will bring a total rout; but it predicted greater disasters in '62 if Mr. Lincoln persisted in the Emancipation scheme. He persisted, and the greater disasters were reserved for its opponents. All that the Union party has to do is to "go forward," as the children of Israel were commanded to do when the unbroken Red Sea lay before them, mountains on either hand, and the hosts of Pharaoh in the rear. Let them go forward as they did in '62, and the "greater disasters" of '68 will overwhelm their opponents as they did in '63.

THE TRADE OF FRANCE.

The foreign trade of France is seven times as great as it was in 1826. In the last ten months of 1866 she imported goods to the value of 2,486,000,000 francs, and exported goods to the value of 2,823,000,000 francs. Balance in her favor 336,000,000. Now let us see in what her principal imports consisted.

In the first ten months of last year France imported 96,500,006 kilogrammes of cotton, against 49,000,000 in the same months of 1865. From England alone she imported cotton to the value of 137,594,000 francs—an increase of 46,000,000 francs from the previous year—and wool to the value of more than 75,000,000 francs—an increase of 14,000,000 francs from the previous year. She also imported from Belgium wool to the value of 16,500,000 francs, increase of 4,000,000 francs; from Germany, wool to the value of 15,000,000 francs; from Italy, silk to the value of 79,500,000 francs, an increase of 6,000,000 francs.

The production of coal has risen from 79,000,000 metrical quintals in 1857 to 120,000,000 metrical quintals last year. In 1865, 72,243,927 metrical quintals were imported—an increase of 5,913,420 from 1864.

These, it will be observed, are all raw materials, out of which her vast production of manufactured articles are produced, of which, after supplying the home demand, she exported in 1864 to the value of 2,924,200,000 francs, or about $584,000,000, an increase over the exports of 1859 of 677,800,000 francs. France exports no raw materials; we export little else; and hence it is that the precious metals are abundant and increasing there, while we are unable to retain them, although we have the most productive mines in the world.

BOOK NOTICES.

MANUAL OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES. By Timothy Farrar. Boston: Little, Brown & Co. Pittsburgh: For sale by Davis, Clarke & Co.

John Randolph once said that for a nation in its infancy to adopt a written Constitution of Government, expecting to be bound by it, was as unreasonable as for Daniel Lambert in his babyhood, to be measured for the clothes he was to wear in middle life. Certainly there are infelicities in our Constitution, but between the Courts and the innate sovereignty of the people, the instrument has from time to time been adjusted to the fresh necessities; and doubtless this will continue to be the case so long as a written Constitution shall endure.

Many of the forms of expression used in the Constitution are indefinite even to vagueness and obscurity. Not a few of them can be determined with tolerable precision only by interpretations from analogies or precedents. Hence the necessity, now that the Constitution, by the course of events, has been brought specially under consideration and review, for a manual, adapted as well to popular use as for the convenience of the legal profession, in which the general scope of the Constitution and the distribution of powers made therein between the co-ordinate departments of the government, are set forth in the light not only of our own legislative and judicial expositions, but according to the recognized principles of responsible administration in all countries.

Mr. Farrar has, to a large degree, supplied this want in his admirable treatise. He brought to the task a fullness of the knowledge particularly needed, an exactness of discrimination, and a calm, judicial temperament, all conspiring to lead him to sound conclusions and to the presentation of them in a manner to enforce respect and compel conviction. Considering that the adjustment of the Constitution to the amazing development of the country has not been finished, and is not likely to be for some time to come, this volume is peculiarly timely and acceptable.

MANUAL OF PHYSICAL EXERCISES. By William Wood, Instructor in Physical Education. With one hundred and twenty-five illustrations. New York: Harper & Brothers, Publishers. For sale by Henry Miner, Fifth street, Pittsburgh.

The Manual comprises gymnastics, rowing, skating, fencing, cricket, calisthenics, sailing, swimming, sparring, base ball, together with rules for training and sanitary suggestions. Physical exercises are so largely practised now-a-days, that a work of this kind will be highly prized, for the valuable information it contains on such topics. It is eminently practical throughout, and every part is presented with such clearness, simplicity and plainness, that any novice may easily comprehend the rules laid down to govern them. And while it is so well adapted for beginners, it nevertheless contains much instruction for the most expert in any or all of the exercises treated. The author has had years of experience, and is thereby enabled to present the topics in a practical form to his readers. The illustrations make the book still more interesting and attractive.

THE CURATE'S DISCIPLINE. A Novel. By Mrs. Eiloart. New York: Harper & Bros. Pittsburgh: Henry Miner.

Harper's Library of Select Novels are so much above the trashy light literature teeming from the press that the series may appropriately be called a "Library of Select Novels." The Curate's Discipline is No. 298 of the series, and, from the literary reputation of the author, the work will be popular among a large class of readers. The type and paper are unusually fine for that class of publications.

DIALOGUES FOR YOUNG FOLKS. By S. A. Frost, author of "The Parlor Stage," "Frost Letter Writer," etc. New York: Dick & Fitzgerald. Pittsburgh: W. A. Gildenfenny.

This little work of 176 pages is a collection of original, moral and humorous dialogues, adapted to the use of school and church exhibitions, family gatherings, and juvenile celebrations on all occasions. Great variety is furnished, and suitable, too, for well advanced young people, as well as the little folks. It is represented as being moral and unexceptional for youths.

THE AMERICAN LAW REVIEW. October, 1867. Published by Little, Brown & Company, Boston. Subscriptions received by Kay & Co., Wood street, Pittsburgh.

This number contains articles of ability on the following subjects: Liability as Partner; Railroad Legislation; Chief Justice Shaw; A Book About Lawyers; United States Circuit Court; Digest of the English Law Reports for May, June and July, 1867; Selected Digest of State Reports; Book Notices; List of new Law Books, and Summary of Events. This quarterly does not limit its space to any special department of Law, but discusses law reforms; legal aspect of political and international questions; furnishes American and English cases with notes; gives historical and biographical notices; articles from English and Continental publications, &c. The articles of this number are of decided merit, not only to those in the profession of law, but to the general readers.

RUPERT GODWIN. A novel. By Miss E. M. Braddon, author of "Lady Audley's Secret," "Diavola or Nobody's Daughter," "Henry Dunbar," etc. New York: Dick & Fitzgerald. For sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, Fifth street, Pittsburgh.

This author is so well known to novel readers, by the publication of the works named above, that it is only necessary to announce "Rupert Godwin," the latest publication of the writer. It is a stout pamphlet of full two hundred pages, and will doubtless find a large sale.

THE LAST DAYS OF POMPEII. By Bulwer. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott & Co. Pittsburgh: Davis, Clarke & Co.

This is another installment of the excellent "Globe Edition," of the full works of the great novelist.

AGRICULTURAL.

Fertilizers.

The great trouble of farmers is the deterioration of land under tillage, and the cost of manure to supply the properties abstracted by growing crops. By the order of nature the tree returns to the earth all that it has taken from it, by giving back each year its crop of leaves and fruit, and finally its woody fibre. This year's grass is food for that of next. Every animal returns, in droppings and its carcass, all that it takes from the ground, and, in savage life, this is true of man. Civilization, by depositing the waste of families in deep vaults, and draining it off into rivers, poisons the wells and streams, kills the fish, creates pestilential diseases and robs the land. The river Thames became so foul from the drainage of London that the new Parliament House and other costly buildings on its banks were uninhabitable. The sewers are now emptied into tanks forty miles from the heart of the city, there deodorized by a chemical compound, which precipitates all solid matter to the bottom and leaves clear water on the surface. This is drawn off and the sediment carted out and sold for manure. By this device the city waste is returned to the earth, and instead of importing fertilizers from the Guano Isles and battle fields of the continent, the English farmer, near London, gets his substitute for guano and bone dust, in a form as inoffensive as either, from the city sewer tanks. The process is, perhaps, the most expensive which could be adopted, but, even then, it is a vast economy compared to the old system of waste. A new plan of "earth closets," as a substitute for "water closets," has been adopted in some parts of England. The Baron Rothschild has them introduced on his estate at Halton. These consist of water tight, shallow boxes, on low wheels, under the seat. About one pound and a half of dry earth is thrown into the box, daily, for every member of the family, so as to cover and absorb the waste. The box is drawn out and its contents thrown in a convenient place to dry, when the same earth is sometimes used several times an an absorbent or deodorizer, and becomes equal in value to guano. Those who object to a second use have it removed at once to the compost heap, and an "earth closet" is found so free from offensive odors that it may be kept in the house without any unpleasantness. This secures the occupants from that fruitful source of disease, the exhalations of vaults and water closets, and ensures a return to the earth of the waste which is its natural compensation for the strength expended in maturing crops.

In cities a system of cartage and railway trucks can bring in the clay and take out the waste, much as the kitchen slops of large cities are now removed. In a coal region the ashes, made in a dwelling, would often be sufficient as an absorbent, and there would be no additional cost in removal. Furnace cinders, and coke dust, in addition to being valuable absorbents and deodorizers, are the best pulverizers for clay soils that have been discovered.

No shovelful of coal ashes or cinders should be wasted. In addition to their pulverizing and fertilizing qualities they are sure to enrich the land by their color. This absorbs the sun's rays and thus warms and feeds the growing plant. The blackness of soil is an assurance of its fertility, not only from indicating chemical properties, but from the color itself. White rejects the light and warmth, and reflects it back into the atmosphere. Black drinks the rays and they become warmth and nourishment. For this reason soot is a more powerful fertilizer than guano.

THE American Agriculturist says that a rail fence around a field of six acres will occupy a little over three quarters of an acre, and be a nursery for weeds. It recommends as milking stool a piece of plank two feet long, four inches high at one end and six at the other, and a seat on the high end. Put the low end under the cow, sit on the seat, place the feet and bucket on the platform before you and milk fast.

TO MAKE WINE, press and strain the juice out of your grapes by any process most convenient. If you wish the color and aroma of the skins, let the mass foment before straining. Fill your keg or demijohn, cork it, putting one end of an India Rubber tube into the cork, and turning the other end into a cup of water, so that the gas can escape and no air enter. When fermentation ceases close the vessel until the wine is clear, then rack it off, carefully, into a clean vessel, replace the tube until the second fermentation ceases, close, and let it stand until spring, when it may be bottled. If the grapes are sufficiently rich in sugar it will be wine, if not, it will be vinegar. Too much sugar in the grape will make it sweet wine; the Agriculturalist, from which we gather our statement does not suggest the addition of sugar when it is deficient; but if the grapes are "sour grapes," as are our's, being quite out of reach, we would recommend a pound of sugar to a gallon of juice.

IN sowing grass or clover seeds put on plenty of seed; and be careful to have it regularly distributed. Occupy all the space with grass, and do not condemn a sparce population of cultivated blades to struggle with the aboriginal weeds. First sow your field, walking back and forth in opposite directions, then cross and sow it crosswise. This distributes more evenly than putting on all the seed by one sowing, and tends to make two blades grow where only one grew before.

HOGS, geese and turkeys, while fattening, should have a plentiful supply of charcoal and rotten wood, not mixed in their food, so as to compel them to eat it, but left where they can take all they want, and as often as they want it. Hogs provided with charcoal, salt, rotten wood, pure water and a clean bed, do not have measle, deseased liver or trichina.

NEVER put acid fruits into tin cans. They always become more or less poisonous by decomposing the tin. A new tin can is more objectionable than an old one, as it is the tin, not the iron, which combines with the acid of the fruit to make poisonous compounds. The iron of a can from which the tin has been eaten by fruit formerly kept in it, will discolor, but not poison fruit.

DOG TAX.—There are 100,000 dogs taxed in Great Britain at twelve shillings each, making a revenue of near $300,000. There are 700,000 dogs in this country, and a similar tax ($3.00) each would yield $2,100,000 revenue, relieve some overtaxed hands of industry, make wool and mutton cheaper, and increase the profits of wool growers.

TO PREVENT MICE gnawing clothes, put old newspapers in with them. Mice have a literary turn, a tooth for printer's ink, and will not disturb your coat if you furnish them the papers.

Political.

—The Democratic State Central Committee, before election, sent a circular to County Committees, of which this is a copy:

"In very slow districts I would suggest a special contract with active men. Thus in 1865 the district polled all the Democratic votes; in 1866, 120 Democratic votes; now for every Democratic vote over 110 we will pay you a fixed sum the day after the election. This is simply an incentive to bring men out, for the vote of 1866 shows they are there.

"Be very careful of this paper. Keep it entirely private. If you have any doubt of the men you employ, tell others of your friends that you have placed money in their hands.

"WM. A. WALLACE, Chairman."

—Iowa is one of the Republican States which never falters. The "Great States" may stand or fall; but Iowa is great in standing by her principles let who will desert. Minnesota will doubtless stand by and with her.

A "Bank Breaker" at Homburg.

Galignani says: "From a letter we have just received from Homburg we learn that the same Maltese millionaire who in 1864 broke the bank at Baden has renewed his exploits this year. A few days ago he did the same in that town three times running. The Prince of Wales happened to be there at the time, amusing himself with playing a few Napoleons from time to time; the Duke of Hamilton and Mustapha Pacha were also among the visitors. He then started for Berlin, taking Homburg on his way, and at this latter place won three hundred thousand francs, but did not break the bank, because the director kept sending bank notes as long as the play lasted. The coolness with which the Maltese matador played struck every one with astonishment, so much so that the director of the Homburg bank called upon him the day after and told him he had never seen a gentleman play with the same impassive demeanor, since he was not more moved than the bank itself. But what is narrated as most singular is the circumstance that the Maltese keeps the money he wins, and does not, like almost all others, win one day to lose double the next. It also appears that he spends his winnings most freely, giving large sums in charity and presents, and that he has thus become well known among the personages who frequent these bathing places. In 1866, it appears, he did not pay any visit to Germany."

Shook up the Wrong Passenger.

A few days since a lady and her sister, and a grown-up son of the latter, took the cars at Boston for the east, the sisters occupying a seat together, and the young man the one behind with another person. Upon entering the Salem tunnel the aunt, to have a little fun, rose up carefully, reached over to the seat the young man had been occupying, seized some one by the collar, shook him soundly, and then resumed her seat.

The sister, surprised at her vigorous movements, asked what she had been doing, and was informed by the other that she had been attempting to frighten her nephew. Her feelings can be imagined when the other made her acquainted with the fact that the young man left the train at Salem, and that she had been "shaking up the wrong passenger."

When the train emerged from the tunnel, the man who had been mistaken for the son was observed adjusting his necktie and collar, and observing that he did not know what the matter was with the ladies in front of him, but one of them had just given him a severe shaking, torn off his necktie, scratching his face, and disarranging his hair, and he was at a loss to give any other account of the sudden attack that had been made upon him.

AN AUTUMN SUGGESTION.

Now, as leafy fogs arise and searching winds commence to blow; now, as the human body, exhausted like inanimate nature by the heats of summer begins to wilt and droop; now, ere the inclement winter makes its trying onset; NOW is the time for a preparatory course of the best acclimating medicine in existence,

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Fever and ague is rampant in all parts of the country. Quinine, the physicians think, will not [illegible] the phase of the disease which at present pervades the entire West. It is well that it is so, for the remedy (so-called) is deadlier than the malady. But if Quinine is inefficient in intermittent fevers, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is irresistible. It would be safe to make a contract, under [illegible], that any given "Fever-and-Ague-district" should be exempted from the disorder for any particular time, provided every inhabitant would take the BITTERS according to directions, during the term of the contract. There has never been an instance in which this sterling invigorant and anti-febrile medicine has failed to ward off the complaint, when taken duly as a protection against malaria. Hundreds of physicians have abandoned all the officinal specifics and now prescribe this harmless vegetable tonic, and nothing else, as a preventive and cure for all the forms of intermittent fever. Vigor is the thing most needful in these cases, as well as in dyspepsia and nervous affections, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are the safest, surest and most wholesome strengthening preparation that human skill has yet concocted.

BLIND EYES RESTORED.

The case to which we alluded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Miss Fisher herself, who to-day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his genius and skill in restoring her TO ENTIRE AND PERFECT SIGHT. Miss Fisher had been nearly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, as hundreds of cases like hers are doomed to never-ending darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DOCTOR KEYSER'S treatment for two months, and before she applied to him through her brother, Simon P. Fisher, slight hopes were entertained of her ever getting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery.

We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the facts above stated.

as a partner, and will continue the Brewing and Malting business under the name and style of SPENCER, M'KAY & CO. The business of the firm of SPENCER & M'KAY will be settled at the office of SPENCER, M'KAY & CO., and we would respectfully call the attention of the friends and customers of the late firm to the importance of having all the outstanding accounts promptly settled, and also the necessity of having all the empty casks of S. & M'K's promptly returned, to enable us to close up all old accounts on our books.

JOS SPENCER,
JAS. M'KAY.

Calling attention to the above, we would respectfully solicit a continuance of the patronage so liberally bestowed on the firm of SPENCER & M'KAY, feeling assured that, by strict attention to business, and by using the best quality of Malt and Hops in the brewing of our Ales and Porters, we will merit the liberal patronage and maintain the high standard of excellence enjoyed by the late firm.

STEAM POWER

BRICK MACHINE,

MANUFACTURED BY THE

PITTSBURGH BRICK MACHINE

AND

BRICK MANUFACTURING CO.

This Machine takes the clay direct from the bank, (without the preparation, by soaking necessary for "soft mud" machines,) and tempers it thoroughly, pressing in steel moulds, brick stiff enough to be packed up eight high in the yard as made. For setting with the trowel, bearing hard usage, and making a strong, true wall, there are no better brick known. The cost of making them by this machine is from 95 cents to $1.10 per 1,000, according to the rates of wages. This we guarantee. The machine is built entirely of iron and steel; and in the best style for strength and permanent use in working clay. Apply for circulars, giving full information, at the office,

Totten's Patent Grooved Chill Rolls,

Equally valuable for BAR IRON AND STEEL, and especially for rounds and squares. We have made these Rolls for 8 inch, 9 inch, 10 inch, 12 inch, 16 inch and 18 inch trains. Wherever used they have given great satisfaction, and we have the pleasure of referring to the following testimonials:

OFFICE OF THE AKRON IRON CO.,
Akron, July 12th, 1867.

Mr. Robt. C. Totten, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Dear Sir: We have had a pair of your patent grooved chill rolls in our use for the last six months, and find them of a superior quality. The iron finished on them is of a smooth, even surface, and free from scales, and I consider them in all respects of great advantage, making better iron and of less expense, in consequence of requiring less dressing.

Yours truly,
BENJ. GROSVENOR, Sup't.

PITTSBURGH STEEL WORKS.
ANDERSON, COOK & CO., Manufacturers of all Descriptions of Steel,
Corner of Ross and First streets.
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 7 1867.

Mr. Robt. C. Totten—Dear Sir:—The grooved chilled rolls which we procured from you about a year since have proved to be a perfect success. There is a great saving in dressing over soft Rolls, and give a much better finish to the Steel. We consider them indispensable.

Yours truly,
ANDERSON, COOK & CO.

BLACK DIAMOND STEEL WORKS,
PARK BROTHER & CO.,
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18, 1867.

Mr. Robt. C. Totten, Pittsburgh—Dear Sir:—In reply to your inquiry in relation to your new patent grooved Chill Rolls, we have to say that having used a number of them, we find they answer our purpose admirably. We are now using a pair of 16-inch grooved Chill Rolls, the last pair you made for us. These Rolls are used for finishing large rounds, and enable us to obtain such a finish upon our Steel as could not be had with the use of the ordinary grooved Rolls. The saving in turning your Rolls ready for use, is fully one-fourth less than is necessary when plain Chill Rolls have to be grooved in the turning lathe, whilst the advantage gained with your grooved Chill Rolls is, that the whole surface of the groove is uniformly hard, requiring not over one-half the work that is usually needed in dressing the ordinary grooved Rolls. We believe you have gained a great point in producing a grooved Chill Roll, an article that has long been needed by the manufacturers of Steel and Iron, to enable them to produce an article with a good finished surface.

We take pleasure in recommending manufacturers of Steel and Iron to give your grooved Chill Rolls a trial.

Respectfully yours,
PARK BROTHER & CO.

We think we are warranted in believing that they will eventually take the place of Soft Rolls, especially for Rounds and Squares.

All orders promptly attended to.

THE COURTS.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Sterrett.

This Court met at the usual hour on Monday. A new jury (the fourth during the term) was in attendance. The following cases were disposed of:

DISORDERLY HOUSE.

Edward and Mary Quinn were indicted for keeping a disorderly house in Lower St. Clair township, in the neighborhood of Brownstown, on oath of Mrs. Ann Burke. A number of witnesses were called on both sides, and the weight of the testimony indicated that the defendants' house was by no means kept in an orderly manner, in respect to great noises in the night time. It appeared that the disorder arose from indulgence in liquor kept for sale at the house. The jury found a verdict of guilty. Sentence deferred.

SELLING WITHOUT LICENSE.

The defendants in the case above noted were also indicted, jointly, and the husband separately, for selling liquor without license, on oath of Henry Burke, who testified to having drank and paid for liquor on the premises. No fixtures or bar were provided, but in other respects the place was a drinking saloon. The jury found a verdict of guilty.

FEMALE BURGLAR.

Martha Grey was placed on trial on an indictment for burglary, in breaking into the house of George C. Miller, in McKeesport, on the night of the 5th of September last, and taking therefrom a number of articles. The kitchen portion of the dwelling was entered through a window, and the articles taken consisted of cups and saucers, knives and forks, eggs, roast beef, &c., &c. A witness testified that on the morning of September 6th, about half past four o'clock, he saw defendant sitting on a board walk, in McKeesport, bareheaded and barefooted, and having near her four baskets, in which were cups and saucers, eggs, flowers, a lady's skirt, &c. The jury found the prisoner guilty of larceny. Sentence deferred. The circumstances of the case indicated that the prisoner is demented, or at least weak minded.

FELONIOUS ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

James alias Reynolds Johnston was indicted for felonious assault and battery on oath of George Washington. The parties are colored men. In August last they had a difficulty on Webster street, in the Sixth ward, which culminated in Washington receiving a severe stab in the back. The prosecutor's version of the affair was, in substance, that he was sitting talking with a person at Judy McFadden's saloon, when Liz. Brown, "Johnston's woman," came up and said something to him; he told her to go away, that he was in enough trouble without her coming about; Johnston next came along; he (prosecutor) then started towards his home, when Johnston's "woman" again accosted him, saying, "what are you doing here; why don't you go home to your wife?" Washington replied, "Liz, go way, and don't bother me." Johnston also again appeared, and after a few words had been exchanged called Washington a "black son of a b—." The prosecutor then struck or struck at Johnston—could not say whether he knocked him down or not, but he jumped away from him; there was an embankment at the spot, and the defendant might have jumped down or fallen over it. Washington then started towards his home, and had not gone far when he received the stab in the back, from Johnston, as he supposed, he being the nearest person to him at the time. Dr. McNary, who dressed the wound, testified that it was about six inches in length and half an inch in width, extending from the shoulder blade downward and inward to within half an inch of the spinal column. The wound was not dangerous to life. Prosecuting witness appeared on the stand with crutches, creating the impression that his power of locomotion had been interfered with from the effects of the wound, but this illusion was dispelled when the fact appeared that the witness was suffering from rheumatism.

The other side of the story was "on the contrary quite the reverse," in some respects, colored persons who saw the difficulty testifying that the prosecutor was most desirous for a "mill," and began it by calling defendant a "black son of a b—," and knocking him down in a gutter. Two facts, however, could not be controverted, viz: that the prosecutor was stabbed, and that the only persons concerned in the difficulty were the prosecutor and defendant. The jury found a verdict of not guilty as to the felony, but guilty of the misdemeanor of unlawful cutting.

Court adjourned until Tuesday at ten o'clock a. m.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

Jury trials commenced in this Court yesterday.

The first case taken up was that of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Co. vs. Charles N. Shaffer, Jno. N. Shaeffer, John Gaugwisch and Andrew Kloman. Summons in debt, or suit on the bond of C. N. Shaffer, as cashier of the railroad company, at Penn freight station. It is alleged that C. N. Shaffer neglected to settle his account and pay over to the company money that came into his hands, and that his sureties have not paid and still refuse to pay over the same, wherefore the plaintiffs claim to have suffered damage to the value of ten thousand dollars, the amount of the bond. The alleged defaulter is alleged to be absent in Germany. On trial.

The following is the trial list for to-day:

5. Lindsay & Co. vs C. C. Baisley.
7. Logan vs. Jackson.
9. Knapp vs. Merbitz, et. al.
10. Powden vs same.
11. Reese vs. Morrow.
12. Fawcett & Co. vs. Lanahan.
16. Kennedy vs. Wilson.
18. Griffin vs. McLaren.

Common Pleas—Judge Mellon.

MONDAY, October 14.—James Biddle vs. James Taylor. Action to recover the price of a lot of wheat. The jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $114 20.

Jane McCune and James McCune vs. Peter Black. This was an action in ejectment for a lot of ground in South Pittsburgh. Plaintiff took a non-suit.

Following is the trial list for this day:

129. Anderson vs. Smidth & Co.
133. Woods, Jr., vs. Hill et al.
136. Halloran & McMahon, for use, vs. Kier, Foster et al.
138. Hutchinson vs. W. H. Williams & Co.
139. Same vs. Same.

2. Shouse vs. McDonald.
6. Burns et ux vs. Adams Express Company.
12. Baldwin vs. Henderson.
15. Shafer vs. Hoag.

Police Items.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Anges Darragh yesterday made information against John O'Brien, charging him with assault and battery. O'Brien is a resident of the Fifth ward, and Darragh is a stranger in the city. He alleges that while passing quietly along Penn street, he was accosted by O'Brien, who, without any words whatever, knocked him down. He did not know at the time who it was that had so unceremoniously interrupted him, but upon inquiry ascertained that it was O'Brien. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused by Alderman Taylor.

Hannah Dawson made information before Alderman Mullen, of Allegheny, against her husband, Brown Dawson, charging him with assault and battery. She alleges that he struck her in the face with his fist. He was arrested and after a hearing held in the sum of three hundred dollars bail for his appearance at Court, in default of which he was committed.

FALSE PRETENSE.

Charles H. Snyder appeared before Alderman Mullin, of Allegheny, and made information against Andrew Graber, charging him with obtaining money under false pretence. He alleges that the defendant came to him about a month since, representing that he was "hard up," and wanted to borrow some money, for which he offered to leave in pledge a breast pin, which he said was set with diamonds. Upon these representations he obtained twenty-five dollars, promising to return in a short time and redeem the pin. The pin, it appears, was not set with diamonds as represented, and was not worth half the money he had obtained on it. He refused to return the money, when he was arrested and held for a hearing, but before the time for the hearing arrived the matter was amicably adjusted.

George Gungert yesterday made oath before Alderman McMasters, charging L. J. Shaler with obtaining goods under false pretence. Gungert is a tailor, doing business on Smithfield street. He alleges that the defendant came to his establishment and purchased goods to the amount of forty dollars, for which he gave him an order on Mr. William Coleman, of Allegheny, stating that he was a music teacher, and had been engaged in that capacity in the family of Mr. Coleman, who, he said, owed him over one hundred dollars. The order was taken, but when presented to the gentleman upon whom it was drawn, it was not honored with payment. On the contrary, Mr. C. said he did not know any such man as the drawer. The musical man was arrested and held for a hearing.

ALLEGED ATTEMPT TO DEFRAUD.

E. F. A. Faulhaber made information yesterday before Alderman Mullin, against William Springer, charging him with attempting to defraud his creditors. He alleges that he loaned Springer $130 to defray his wife's funeral expenses, and that he had reason to believe that he intended to remove from the State without paying the money. Springer was arrested and gave bail for the payment of the money.

LARCENY.

Hugh Connor made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday, against William Kerr, charging him with the larceny of an overcoat valued at $40, and a pair of pants and suspenders valued at $16. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused, but he has not yet been apprehended. He is supposed to be in Washington county.

REFUSED TO SHOW HIS TICKET.

James Carr, a resident of McKeesport, was arrested at the Connellsville Railroad Depot for disorderly conduct. He was in the act of getting on board the train when he was requested to show his ticket, which he refused to do, and hence was stopped. He became disorderly, when Officer Wallbank endeavored to quiet him by telling him that it was the rules of the company and that he must comply with them; but instead of being pacified he became more boisterous, and the officer arrested him. He resisted and a scuffle ensued in which the offender received a slight tap on the head with a "billy," which had the effect of quieting him a little, but he still refused to go with the officer, who then called assistance. Seeing that resistance was in vain, Carr accompanied the officer to the watch house, where he deposited fifty dollars as security for his appearance to-day.

A FEMALE BRUISER—PROBABLE HOMICIDE.

A fight occurred yesterday on Ohio street, Allegheny, near the Penitentiary, between Belle Kelley and Cal Black, women of "undoubted" reputation, the former white and the latter colored. Belle was considerably beaten and very severely injured by her opponent, Cal, who, in this instance, proved herself a regular "bruiser." The parties had been drinking together during the day, were both drunk, and in passing the Penitentiary on Ohio street a quarrel arose between them. Cal being the least intoxicated of the two, picked up a paving stone and struck the other in the forehead, knocking her down, and then picked up a brick and struck her several times on the back part of the head, cutting several severe gashes and fracturing the skull. The "bruiser" was arrested and taken to the lock-up, and the bruised conveyed to the Mayor's office, where her injuries were attended to by Dr. Rankin.

—Since writing the above we learn that the woman Kelley is in a critical state, fears being entertained that she will die from the effects of her injuries.

SURETY OF THE PEACE.

David Owens made information before Alderman Thomas, against Thos. Valentine, for surety of the peace. The prosecutor alleges that the defendant used vile, threatening and abusive language toward him, and that he assaulted him on the street and threatened to tear his bowels out, and he is afraid he will do him some harm. A warrant was issued and placed in the hands of officer Mattern. The parties reside in Lower St. Clair township.

LEA & PERRINS'
CELEBRATED
WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE
PRONOUNCED BY CONNOISSEURS TO BE THE "ONLY GOOD SAUCE" and applicable to EVERY VARIETY OF DISH.
EXTRACT of a LETTER from a MEDICAL GENTLEMAN at MADRAS to his Brother at WORCESTER, May, 1851:
"Tell LEA & PERRINS that their SAUCE is highly esteemed in India, and is, in my opinion, the most palatable as well as the most wholesome SAUCE that is made."
The success of this most delicious and unrivalled condiment having caused many unprincipled dealers to apply the name to SPURIOUS COMPOUNDS, the PUBLIC is RESPECTFULLY and EARNESTLY requested to see that the name of LEA & PERRINS are upon the WRAPPER, LABEL, STOPPER and BOTTLE.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

FOR SALE—The best Farm in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., containing about 260 acres, situated six miles south of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Bolivar Station. The improvements are a large hued log house, with nine rooms, a good cellar; a frame bank barn, 40x70, with the best of stabling. Two apple and one peach orchard. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; the fencing is all No. 1; the soil is good, and is well watered; about 200 acres cleared, the remainder in good white oak timber. This property is offered at the low price of fifty dollars per acre. Possession immediately.

Also, a valuable Garden Farm, containing 80 acres, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, and near Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville Railroad, about nineteen miles from the city. The improvements are a two-story brick house with six rooms, hall running through the house, with cellar; a No. 1 barn and other outbuildings. Abundance of the best fruits, of all varieties. Churches, Schools and Mills very convenient. Persons wishing to engage in gardening would do well to call and purchase quickly.

Also, a Farm of 212 acres in Penn township, Westmoreland county, 220 acres cleared and under cultivation, 92 acres of first-rate white oak and other timber, 2 dwelling houses, 1 of them 2 stories, the other 1 story, with a tenant house, with a first-rate Steam Sawmill in good running order; young orchard of grafted fruit. The land is rolling; every acre is tillable, with limestone soil and subsoil, with never failing springs; within one hundred rods of the Penna. Central Railroad; 28 miles east of Pittsburgh, and three miles west of Greensburg. This farm is pleasantly and eligibly situated in a good neighborhood; every acre is underlaid with coal. The title is good.

Also, a Farm of 82 acres in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., near the line of the Pittsburgh & Connellsville Railroad. Improvements are a log house, weather-boarded; frame bank barn, orchard of fifty bearing apple trees, &c. This property will be sold cheap.

Also, 60 acres in Derry township, Westmoreland county, Pa., within four miles of Blairsville, and three miles of two stations on the Pa. R. R. The improvements are, a new frame dwelling house and outbuilding; a new steam saw and grist mill, with two run of burrs, two bolting cloths, and all the necessary fixtures, and a young orchard of choice fruit trees. The whole tract is underlaid with a six foot vein of coal, now opened, and an abundance of limestone. This property will be sold very low, if applied for soon.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, October 14, 1867.

Gold opened at 144¼, a sharp decline since Saturday, and closed firm at 144¼. The transactions at the decline on the 9th and 10th inst. were very large; partly to cover short sales, but principally on expectation. Contrary to all expectation, gold declined when the result of the last election favored the Democrats, and just as unaccountable comes the sudden rise now. The heavy exports of grain, flour, cotton and petroleum, and the reduction of imports should have a declining tendency on the gold premium, the more so since, at the very moment when gold speculators might take advantage of the fears and apprehensions of timid people on assembling of next Congress. Government, fortunately has some twenty-four millions of gold interest to pay—certainly a larger sum than Wall street can take up and carry conveniently on a tight money market. Bonds are dull and decidedly lower. Railroad shares are all higher, and there is quite an excitement in Erie, New York Central, Michigan Southern and the North western shares; the balance of the list is stronger, without any material advance. Mining shares are improving.

Closing New York quotations received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 144¼; 1881's, 111¾; 5-20s, 1862, 112; 1864, 108¾; 1865, 108¾; Consols, 106¾; 10-40s, 100¾; 7-30, 105.

—The New York Tribune says: The discovery of forged 7-30s has disturbed money to some extent, and these notes are not regarded with the high favor of the past year. The dealers are generally indisposed to acknowledge that any large amounts have passed through their hands. The forgery is remarkable for its resemblance to the genuine note, and no ordinary examination shows the difference.

—The New York Post, of Saturday, remarks: It appears that over $60,000 of these forged seven-thirties have been passed by the experts of the Treasury Department, and are now in Washington. The firms from whom these forged notes have been received have been notified by the government detective, but no claim, we believe, has as yet been made that these firms shall take up the notes. A very nice legal question as to responsibility is thus raised, on which the opinion of the legal officers of the government will shortly be taken. On one side it is urged that the notes being forgeries the persons who have sold them to the government are bound to refund the money, and fall back on the correspondents from whom they purchased the notes. The argument on the other side is, that "the Treasury is in the position of a bank that has paid a forged check upon itself, in which case it can have no claim upon the innocent person to whom it was paid. It is entirely different from payment of a check with forged or irregular endorsements, in which case the claim upon the last endorser is clear enough."

—The New London Star says: "There was a meeting of the stockholders of the Stonington Bank yesterday, and it was voted to hold another meeting on the 19th inst., to ascertain whether the bank shall be continued or closed up. It is thought there is no doubt but the bank has ample security for its obligations, and that parties will take the assets and pay the depositors and other creditors. The bank has an outstanding state circulation of about $4,000 in addition to its liability to the depositors. It has of the Joslin Fire Arms paper, $40,000; paper of parties in New York $27,000; over-drafts, $13,000; due, according to the latest memorandum, to the providence and Stonington Railroad, $60 000. The bank has been in a mixed condition for three years, and there has been no choice of directors for five or six years."

—Among some of the foreign bankers there is some apprehension that embarrassments may occur on the Continental money markets from the critical condition of the Credit Mobilier of Paris. The latest mail advices represent that it was doubtful whether the Mobilier would effect the proposed loan with the bank of France, owing to the indisposition of the directors to give their own personal security as they had in the first instance proposed. It is considered impossible that the institution should stand without the support from the Bank of France asked for; and, in the event of its failure, the financial disaster, not only in Paris, but in Italy and Germany, must be very severe. This contingency has a more direct bearing upon the value of our bonds in Europe and consequently upon the gold premium, than is generally supposed.

—The Chicago Tribune, of Saturday, says There was more activity in the demand for money, and, at some houses, it was reported quite pressing. It comes principally from grain on speculation. This class of paper does not meet with much favor, as the present prices of grain are looked upon as being too high to make the operation safe. The demand for discounts on mercantile paper is improving, and there is a good deal of outside signatures offering. The banks confine their favors to depositors in good standing. In the open market there is a good demand for money, and we have heard of loans being made at 3 per cent. The general average is 1½@2 per cent. The shipments of currency to the interior are on a very moderate scale, and most of the institutions are receiving small remittances from the Southwest. There is some inquiry for loans on packer's account.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, October 14, 1867.

CRUDE—The fact that the indications for a rise were not as favorable to-day as on Saturday, had a tendency to stiffen the market somewhat, and sellers who felt a little weak on Saturday, felt pretty strong to-day. This being the case, prices, especially for spot oil, are firmer, though future deliveries, with sellers option, continue weak. We can report a sale of 200 bbls Smith's Ferry at 14c, on spot, and 3000 barrels for all October, seller's option, at 13½c.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil was unusually active to-day, the sales in the aggregate being larger than for any preceding day for some weeks, reaching eighteen thousand barrels. For October and November, the market is firmer, especially the last named month, which sold at 35½@36c. The bulk of the sales to-day were purchases in Philadelphia by Pittsburgh refiners, some of whom are a little apprehensive that there might be a "corner" next month, and these purchases are being made as a precautionary measure against anything of that kind. The particulars of the sales are as follows:

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, October 14, 1867.

The general markets present no new characteristics worthy of special notice. While there is a moderate demand and a fair business doing in a regular way, there is no excitement, and prices, generally, have undergone no material change.

GRAIN—Wheat is in good demand and firm but unchanged; we continue to quote at $2,40 for Red, and $2,50 for White. Oats quiet and firm at 65@66c on track, and 68@70c in store. Rye is in demand and tending upward, and may now be quoted at $1,45@1,50. Corn is quiet but firm at $1,24@1,26. Barley is unchanged; sale of 2 car loads prime Spring reported at $1,38, to go east.

FLOUR—Is firm, with a continued fair local demand and prices are well maintained. We continue to quote at $11,25@11,75 for Spring Wheat; $12,50@12,75 for Winter Wheat, and $14@14.75 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is quoted at $8,50@9.

POVISIONS—Bacon is firm with a steady jobbing demand, and regular sales at 14½ to 15c for Shoulders; 17c to 18c for Ribbed and Clear Sides; 22c for Plain Sugar Cured Hams, and 24@24½c for Canvassed. Lard is still quoted at 15c, and Mess Pork at $25@25,50.

EGGS—Under the influence of an increased demand and diminished arrivals, the market is firm, and fresh packed may now be quoted at 25c.

BUTTER—Is in good demand and prime is in limited supply. We continue to quote at 30@35c for packed, and 38@40c for prime Roll.

CHEESE—Is in good demand and firm but unchanged—regular sales at 14@18c, as to quality.

OIL—Lard Oil is firm but unchanged; sales by manufacturers at 95c for No. 2, and $1,15 for No. 1.

APPLES—The arrivals were unusually large to-day, one house having over six hundred barrels, and, while the market is a little weak, prices, as yet, have undergone no change—ranging from $3 to $6 per barrel, as to quality.

POTATOES — Sweet Potatoes continue scarce and in demand but unchanged at $5@5,50 for good to prime Jerseys.

HAY—Is quiet but steady, with regular sales from country wagons at $15@20 per ton, as to quality.

SALT—Is still quoted nominally at $2,25, on track, and $2,35, delivered.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, October 14, 1867.

CATTLE.

The supply of cattle was considerably larger than last week, and with only a fair demand, the market was considered a little hard, though there were but few left over, and, as a general thing, prices ruled about the same as last week. The best retailing cattle sold at from 7 to 7½c, and the supply of this particular grade was not large, and consequently, the butchers picked up about all that were on sale at the above quotations. Medium butcher's cattle were in good supply and moved slowly at from 6 to 6½c, while stockers sold at from 3½ to 5½, according to quality and condition. The number of Pennsylvania cattle was somewhat larger than usual, though there was also a goodly number from Ohio and Illinois. Stock cattle continue a little dull, though about all that offered were sold within the range of our quotations for this particular grade of cattle.

M. Verner retailed 56 head of Washington county cattle at 5½ to 7; and Peter Hartman sold 28 head from the same county at same prices.

P. Klemen bought 28 head of good Beaver county (Penna.) cattle, from Isaac Anderson, averaging 1300 lbs, at 6¼; 15 head Penna. cattle from H. Metz, averaging 1300, at 6,35; 18 head small Mercer county cattle, from Crum (owned by Richey) at 4¾; 12 head fairish Ohio cattle from Myers & Needy at 5,60; and 12 head from Kerwin at 6¼.

Stakely & Bro. retailed 27 head at 4 to 5½; Rothchilds & Byers 36 head at 5 to 7¼. Kraus & Haas, 56 head Ohio cattle at 5 to 7. Myers & Needy retailed 75 head of Ohio and Illinois cattle at 5 to 7¼.

N. Carr sold 28 head of good Illinois cattle for Dolan at 5¾ to 6¾; and 20 head common cattle for Wernz at 5 to 6. L. Rothchilds, 42 at 5¼ to 6¾.

E. Katz sold 21 head of mixed Ohio stock for M. Heims, at 4½ to 7; and 15 for Roendaugh at at 4 to 5¾.

Wm. Young wholesaled 90 head of fairish Lawrence county Sheep, to Young, (butcher) at $3¾ per head.

Blair reports having sold 115 head at $3¼ per head for Sheep, and $1,75 for Lambs.

HOGS.

There was again a fair retail demand for Hogs to-day, but the sales did not foot up as large as those of last Monday, for some reason or other, which we are at a loss to explain. We continue to quote at 6¼ to 8¼, gross, for fair to prime heavy averages.

Atkinson wholesaled 39 head, averaging about 210, to Rothchilds & Byers, at 7.

Pringle retailed 24 head of Butler Co. Hogs at from 6½ to 7¼.

Emerick & Co. report having retailed 125 head at 7 to 8.

Rothchilds & Byers also retailed some, but we did not get the number or prices.

RIVER NEWS.

The prospects for an early resumption of navigation, were not, we regret to state, as favorable yesterday as on Saturday, no rain having fallen since Sunday. Hopes were being entertained on Saturday and Sunday that the low water was about over, but we fear that G. A's. predictions will be realized. In his last observations he intimated that while there would doubtless be some wet days, yet he did not think that there would be rain enough to effect the river this month, and thus far his predictions have been verified. Notwithstanding we entertain no hard feelings against G. A., we would like to see his prognostications falsified, as a great many interests are languishing for want of navigable rivers, and besides, some of our steamboatmen are getting pretty hard up.

It is rumored that Capt. Richard Calhoun has purchased a fourth interest in the Delaware, for which he paid something like $2,500. Capt. Calhoun, we understand, contemplates placing her on the dock for repairs.

The Cairo correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, under date of the 10th, has the following:

The Fannie Brandeis run through herself near Paducah, and repairs there. The Bertha is aground at Cumberland bar. The second engineer of the Marble City died of cholera to-day, just before reaching Cairo. The remains were taken to St. Louis. The Mepham, bound to St. Louis, is hard aground at Phillips' bar. A drunken man, apparently a laborer, fell overboard while attempting to jump off the Luminary, when she was landing here today, and never rose to the surface.

A Cairo letter of the 9th says the most fashionable wedding ever in Cairo took place last night, at the Methodist Church, on the occasion of the marriage of M. A. Bryson, agent for the Western Board of Trade in promoting river improvements, and Miss Leonora G. Miller.

CASE DECIDED.—In the Court of Appeals the case of Capt. Tom Leathers, of the steamer Vicksburg, who refused to pay his insurance dues of 1861, on account of the war, was decided against him. He must pay up.

The Louisville Courier, of Thursday, has the following remarks on the new bill of lading sought to be introduced there by the steammen:

The merchants of this city, or rather a committee, have taken issue with the steamboat Captains, owners and agents on the style, or wording of the new bill of lading proposed, and adopted by the letter. This new bill of lading was got for the protection of the boatmen, and emanates from Cincinnati, where it is fiercely opposed by a majority of the members of the Chamber of Commerce in that city. It was alleged that the new form bill of lading was in vogue and general use at St. Louis and Orleans, as well as Cincinnati, which, no doubt, was an inducement for our boatmen to also adopt it, thinking it in general use.

We have a copy of the bill of lading now used in St. Louis, where we understand, there is no conflict or opposition existing between the boatmen and the merchants. The form and style of the St. Louis bill of lading is about the same as all others heretofore, with the omission of all superfluous words, and reads as follows:

"Received, St. Louis, ——1867, from—— in apparent good order, on board the good steamboat——, the following articles, marked as below, which are to be delivered, without delay, in like order (the dangers of navigation, fire, explosion and collision excepted,) to——, at——, on levee or wharfboat, he or they paying freight, etc., etc."

There is no real difference in the bills of lading of either Cincinnati or St. Louis, but while the boatmen should be protected and have some limit to their responsibility as common carriers, or as to the limits of delivery of freight or goods, they should not be too captious or dictatorial in their objections. There should be a general good feeling and understanding on each side, and in fact they should agree and have no division whatever. A little concession or modification by each would make both unite, and as it is evident that a misunderstanding exists as to the exact forms of bills of lading used in other cities, we do not deem it inappropriate to suggest to the Captains' Association and to the Board of Trade to move a reconsideration of their actions.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE BANKERS' AND MERCHANTS'

GRAND

Presentation Enterprise

HAS PROVEN

A WONDERFUL SUCCESS.

CAPITAL, TICKETS AND PRIZES

INCREASED FROM

$1,287,148 TO $1,500,000,

Making this the most Stupendous and Successful Presentation Scheme ever Inaugurated in the World!

Our Agents have received orders for over One Hundred Thousand Tickets more than our original issue, and the Managers, being desirous of filling the orders and supplying the demand, have decided to increase the tickets from 1,287,147 to 1,500,000.

The Committee appointed at the first Concert, have decided to distribute the Prizes at the

WHICH WILL TAKE PLACE AT

IRVING HALL,

NEW YORK CITY.

Thursday, October 24th, 1867.

TICKETS, ONE DOLLAR EACH,

A PRIZE WITH EVERY TICKET.

PROSPECTUS.

A number of the leading Bankers and Merchants of New York, in consideration of the great success which has attended many of the Charitable Presentation Entertainments of the day, have formed themselves into a company, with the view of inaugurating an enterprise which, while it shall return them a fair profit, shall offer greater advantages to ticket purchase s than any yet presented; and which being conducted upon a perfectly legitimate and business basis, shall be free from those objectionable features which have characterized many of these enterprises.

To this end they have consigned the sale of tickets and the registering of the same to Clark, Webster & Co., Bankers and Managers, No. 62 Broadway, New York, who will keep the records in their custody until the day of the Grand Presentation Entertainment, when they will be handed over to a Committee selected by the audience to make an impartial distribution of Presents.

A reference to the number of presents and the general plan of distribution, given below, will convince even the most skeptical of the great advantages which will accrue to all who participate in the enterprise; and the Commercial and Financial standing of the Company, and the Managers and Bankers thereof, will, they hope, prove a sufficient guaranty of the fairness and impartiality with which everything in connection with it will be conducted, and that the interests of ticket holders will be most strictly watched over and guarded. In fact, it is the desire of the Managers to conduct every transaction for the mutual benefit of whoever shall purchase a ticket, and scrupulously to avoid any and everything which could in the slightest degree diminish the profits which are likely to accrue to all who invest.

MEDICAL.

CONSUMPTION!

It would take a man a lifetime to read the treatises that have been written upon this important subject, and if a sick man were to attempt it he would make himself worse by the reading, and die before he got half through. The symptoms of the disease are, hacking cough, expectoration of matter or pus, pain in one or both lungs, chilliness, burning in the palms of the hands and soles of the feet, exhausting day or night sweats, hectic fever, wasting of flesh or marasmus, sometimes expectoration of blood. These are the usual outward symptoms, apparent not only to the observing physician, but to the patient's friends. There are, however, more important symptoms than these, which are only made manifest by auscultation and percussion, terms which mean, in a medical sense, thumping and listening and they are employed outwardly in order to ascertain what is going on inside of the cavity of the chest. The signs or symptoms elicited in this way are almost surely demonstrate the true and exact condition of the respiratory organs. A perfect auscultator can not fail in ascertaining whether the Lungs are acting naturally or not. Hence it is the best method of examining the lungs. Their actual condition once discovered, the appropriate treatment is more rapidly arrived at, and every diseased part more completely under the influence of appropriate remedies. We have long been of the opinion that consumption or decay, or wasting of the bodily strength, was dependent on a depraved state of the blood, which carries, in its course, tuberculous matter, and deposits it in the lungs, or elsewhere in the body, just as calculi or stone is deposited in the bladder, a small particle of which attracts other particles, until it becomes of such offense to the natural functions as to bring on inflammatory action, which action, if it could, would carry it out of the system, and which could have been easily done in the beginning of such disease. Dr. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP is a complete and perfect cure in the forming stage of lung disease. It acts on the very principle we have stated above, by enabling the securing or carrying off organs to do a double share of work Waste and repair are easily comprehended if the worn out material be carried off, and renewing material of a proper character, the result must be health and ease, the contrary of sickness and disease. In many cases of consumption which have become settled, Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup fails to cure, although it will do good in nearly all. He prepares a medicine called LUNG CURE or PULMONARY RESTORATIVE, which is a great tonic, and strengtaens and restores the parts to be renewed, while it dissolves and carries out from the body those particles of worn out or extraneous matter, which only tend to clog or destroy it, by hindering the renewing material being deposited in proper place.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, RESULTING FROM PLEURISY, CURED.

Statement of George Ford, carpenter, of No. 16 Sampson street, Allegheny City:

I took a violent attack of pleurisy, in May, 1866, which left me with a cough lasting all summer, wearing away my strength and gradually undermining my health. During this attack pleurisy I had several physicians of the highest reputation in the city. After I had partially recover d from the pleurisy, I was advised to go into the country, which I did, and when there a called in a doctor, who told me my left lung was affected, and that if something were not done soon I would die of CONSUMPTION. I lingered on from this time until about the middle of June, my cough and lung disease gradually growing worse, and I weaker every day, and almost despairing of ever getting well. In this state of despondency, and knowing the general belief of the incurability of Consumption, an having heard of cures made by DR. KEYSER and seeing his advertisement in the newspapers, I was induced in October last to call on the Doctor at his office, 120 Penn street, and had him examine my lungs with his "LUNG SOUND." He told me the upper lobe of my left lung was very much diseased. Yet he thought with great care and the perseverance in the use of his medicine, I would get well. At the time I called on Dr. Keyser my pulse was over one hundred and thirty beats in a minute, and I was generally prostrated, and had to cough night and day. I commenced the Doctor's treatment in October, with a feeble, broken constitution, and continued it faithfully until the present time. The Doctor's medicines helped me from the very start, and I could gradually feel myself getting stronger, and my cough and expectoration lessening. I have gained greatly in flesh, and consider myself well; all the rattling of my lung has ceased, and my general health is in every way good. All my relatives and friends know of the advanced stage of my disease and my extraordinary recovery. One of the medicines given me by Dr. Keyser was a medicine called LUNG CURE, which I took in connection with the other treatment.

GEORGE FORD
PITTSBURGH, March 30, 1867.

ANOTHER CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

STATEMENT OF JOHN G. WIGHAM, OF TURTLE CREEK, ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

I was discharged from the United States army January, 1866, on account of a wound in the chest, from a shell, and a disease which the army physicians pronounced CONSUMPTION. I had a terrible cough and fell away in strength and flesh and was unable to do anything. Shortly after my return from the army, I made application to a physician of my neighborhood and, afterwards, to another in Pittsburgh of high reputation, whose remedies I used faithfully for five months, without any benefit whatever, but rather grew worse, and wasted in flesh and strength every day. In August, 1866, my mother took me to DOCTOR KEYSER, of 120 Penn street, whose skill in such cases like mine had been highly spoken of and put myself under his treatment, he Doctor examined my lungs very carefully with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that my left lung was badly diseased at the upper part, but if I was careful he thought he could cure me by following his directions closely, which I did from that day to this. I gradually improved under Dr. Keyser's medicines from the first week I commenced to take them, and my general health has improved, and my chest, where it was sunk away, and where it pained me, has become full and strong and free from pain. I can now do a full day's work, and take great pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of Dr. Keyser's treatment and medicines.

JOHN G. WIGHAM,
Turtle Creek.
PITTSBURGH, April 11th, 1867.

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP:

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought the first time a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine my if for a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward.

Our son, JAMES PAINTER, some three years of age was afflicted with consumption of the lungs, for which he was discharged from the army. He was examined by four army physicians, who all agreed that he must die with the disease. We brought him to Dr. KEYSER, 140 Wood street, (now 120 Penn street,) who, after sounding his lungs, commenced to treat him, and cured him sound and well. He is now well and has been so for the past three years. Others afflicted in like manner can likewise be cured.

RAILWAY,

EASTERN DIVISION.

THE SHORTEST AND MOST RELIABLE ROUTE from the East to all points in

COLORADO, NEVADA,
CALIFORNIA, UTAH,
ARIZONA, WASHINGTON,
NEW MEXICO, IDAHO,
OREGON.

Two trains leave State Line and Leavenworth daily, (Sundays excepted,) on the arrival of trains of Pacific Railroad from St. Louis, and Hannibal and St. Jo Railroad from Quincy, connecting at Lawrence, Topeka and Wamego with Stages for all points in Kansas. At end of track west of Ellsworth with the UNITED STATES EXPRESS COMPANY'S DAILY LINE OF OVERLAND MAIL AND EXPRESS COACHES FOR

DENVER, SALT LAKE,

AND ALL POINTS IN THE TERRITORIES, and with SANDERSON'S TRI-WEEKLY LINE OF COACHES for Fort Union, Bent's Fort, Taos, Albuquerque, Santa Fe, and all points in Arizona and New Mexico.

With the recent additions of rolling stock and equipment, and the arrangements made with responsible Overland Transportation Lines from its western terminus, this road now offers unequalled facilities for the transmission of freight to the Far West.
